Home Improvement Project Budgets

Chris Burke, Director of Analytics said:

"For November 2013 the Home Improvement Project Index was up 49% versus November 2012, softening slightly through the month as the one off impact of the large storm that hit the south of the UK in October subsided.

Project Budgets continued their decline and did not rise, despite the expectation that storm related damage repairs would drive up the average, indicating that most repairs were of a minor nature.

Year on year we would expect strong double digit project volume growth in December 2013, but for the Home Improvement Project Index to decline markedly, in absolute terms, as the usual seasonal slowdown which begins in November takes hold."
